Handwriting practice for the letter 'V'. A large outline of the letter 'V' is on the left. A small heart is positioned at the junction of the two strokes. Seven arrows point from the heart to the following vowels: α, ο, ι, ε, η, υ, ω. To the right of these vowels are seven horizontal arrows pointing to the right. Further to the right, the digraph 'Vα' is written in a cursive style.

Handwriting practice for the letter 'H'. A large outline of the letter 'H' is on the left. A small heart is positioned at the junction of the two vertical strokes. Seven arrows point from the heart to the following vowels: α, ο, ι, ε, η, υ, ω. To the right of these vowels are seven horizontal arrows pointing to the right. Further to the right, the digraph 'Hα' is written in a cursive style.
